President Harding Approves Projects of International Sporting Club

Reorganized Body Has Plans To Build Home by October 1 Starts Uproar

Will Conduct Service Finals Between Army and Navy Boxers at New Arena; Threatened Foreclosure Crowd Questions Victory of Proceedings Disposed of by Gen. Coleman Dupont

That the International Sporting Club has completed arrangements for the rehabilitation of the organization, that the approval of its projects been personally sanctioned by President Harding and by army and riot developed at Jefferson Park to- pion of the world, and hence king of the division, will soon join ex-Kaiser have its new home built and ready for occupancy by its mem- favorite, Wolf's Cry, and one of the from under his headpiece instead of pulled from under. later than October 1, 1922, was positively assured by Gutzon obstreperous objectors had to be esfirst Street, yesterday afternoon.

WHILE Gutzon Borgium, presi-dent of the International Sport-ing Club, now in process of re-organization, refused to commit himself, the chances are that the new club will not undertake the promotion of any of the hig cham-pionship bouts.

One of the members of the advisory committee speaking on this question said he personally did not believe that houts of extraordinary prominence were for the best interests of the game, and that the Army, Navy and Civilian Board of Boxing Control, which is now more strongly than ever affiliated with the International Sporting Club, would hardly approve any project that did not have for its aim the nationalization of boxing, above the mere commercialization of the sport.
